

What does this word mean?
What sort of things could we class as an adventure?

Your adventure!

You will be embarking on a new adventure next year when you start your new school!

What an exciting time!

The English Faculty are so excited to meet you and start this adventure together!

Let's meet the English team at Newcastle Academy!

Your teacher will now show you a video, this includes a poem which the English faculty have created all about them!

What is your perfect adventure? We want to know!

Have a discussion with a partner or group about what your perfect adventure looks like – you can even make some notes to use later if you have some great ideas!

Then, discuss as a class. Does your teacher have a perfect adventure in mind?

Life is full of adventures, it doesn't have to be something massive.
The definition of adventure is:
'an unusual and exciting or daring experience'.

Taking on a new challenge: being a troop leader at Beavers or Brownies etc.

Starting a new school!

Climbing a mountain!

Beginning a new skill – playing the piano or learning how to water ski!

Having a new sibling or family member!

Surfing a wave!

How could you describe each image?

Think about zooming in on key parts of image and describing what is there in detail.

What ambitious word choice could you make?

For example, instead of 'Waving in the distance, the red parachute swirled in the air' could you replace some of those word choice to make it 'Waving in the distance, the crimson parachute descended through the mystical fog filled air.'

What is your perfect adventure? We want to know!

Create a piece of descriptive writing where you describe your perfect adventure.

Remember to think about your word choices and really create an image in your reader's mind.

We want to be able to see what you're describing in our minds!
